

Continuing Care Group rates, schedules, and locations

Building your new life in recovery is a process. And you don't need to go it alone. Hazelden's Continuing Care Groups are designed to help you put the profound, life-changing lessons of treatment into practice—back in real life.

Hazelden offers Continuing Care Groups for men, women, co-ed participation, and families. Groups meet for two hours, once a week, for 25 weeks. Several locations are available, both in Center City and the Twin Cities.
